

FORUM ON MEDIA DIVERSITY

A project of Manship School of Mass Communication

Many Voices, One Vision

Diversity with a click: www.mediadiversityforum.lsu.edu

About

The Forum on Media Diversity, a partnership of the Manship School of Mass Communication and the Reilly Center for Media & Public Affairs, is dedicated to national service as a principal source of information and scholarship about diversity in the academic and professional realms of mass communication.

We'd like to hear from you. Your ideas, suggestions and comments will help us grow and adjust to meet your needs. Send an email any time to Ralph IZard at izard@lsu.edu and/or our webmaster Masudul Biswas at mbiswal@lsu.edu

Manship School earns national diversity award

Manship School of Mass Communication

The Manship School of Mass Communication at Louisiana State University has been selected as the inaugural recipient of the national Equity & Diversity Award from the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication (AEJMC).

The AEJMC Equity & Diversity Award recognizes academic units for outstanding progress and innovation in racial, gender, and ethnic equity and diversity. Nominations outline a program's efforts over the previous three years in hiring and recruitment, status of current faculty, academic climate and institutionally embedded support.

Web site highlights

Research Database

Searchable. The database includes annotated bibliographic information of nearly 3,000 journal articles and books.

Resources

- Articles/Reports
- Diversity organizations
- Diversity Video
- Grants/Fellowships
- Media diversity syllabi

News & Events

The section provides an updated & comprehensive list of professional and academic diversity activities.

Free Diversity Book

Get a free copy of Diversity That Works, a book published by the Manship School in cooperation with the Knight Foundation. The publication provides practical advice about increasing diversity in recruiting, curriculum and special programs. Simply provide your regular mailing address in an e-mail to izard@lsu.edu

Partners

- AEJMC
- Gannett Foundation
- Knight Foundation
- McCormick Foundation
- New America Media
- The Scripps Howard Foundation